Dates to Remember

September 10: Artist of the Month Reception 4-7pm

San Joaquin Potters Guild

The San Joaquin Potters Guild is our Artist of the Month for September. There are more than 100 items for sale in the show. Guild artists participating in the potters show are: Kathy White, Joy Ross, Donna Samelson, Don Hall, Glenda Burns, Linda Osborne, Jane Burns, Randy Crimmel, Susan Farley, JC Strote, Lana Jones and Pam Ackles. (Those names in bold are SAL members.)

The sale runs through the month of September.

Fall sale scheduled for October 14 & 15

The fall art sale scheduled for Friday and Saturday October 14 and 15 will include artbooks, frames, paints, brushes and miscellaneous art equipment.

Members are being asked to donate any of the above items for the sale. You may bring items to the gallery anytime until October 8. All items must be donations. This is our once a year fundraiser.

SAL: Youth Student Program, set for Fall, 2016

Due to the success of the June YAP Program for students, the classes are again going to be held in late October through early November.
CLASS SCHEDULE:

Saturday mornings:
October 22 & 29 and November 5 & 12

9am-10:30 am, ages 6-8
11am-12:30 pm, ages 9-13

Instructors:
Beatriz Flores and Martha Mangahas

Funds limited, donation of art supplies welcomed.

Parents must come to the gallery to get their children officially on the roster. Sign ups can't be accepted by phone.

You must signup for all four classes:$12.00 for the course.

We do grant scholarships (waive the fee) to those who request it.

If classes are full the student can be placed on a waiting list.

September 8: Demo artist, 3-5 pm

Raoul Mora

The drawing classes with Raoul Mora have been a huge success. It meets every second Thursday from 3:00-5:00pm at the Elsie May Goodwin Gallery.

The next session will be on the figure. Sounds complicated! But Raoul is a master at pulling the best out of his students and will work with beginners, as well as advanced artists. Don't be afraid.

Getting back to SAL's roots which started as a critique group, we will reinitiate what was known as The Third Eye by Gail Hazard who was our President from 1960-1962. This was a meeting of members wherein they would bring a painting they were working on or recently completed and have the group go over it to see if there were any improvements that could be made. Serious art students will tell you that many times you learn more at critiques than sometimes doing.

Raoul will conduct the critique at the near end of our drawing session, so bring in one piece of your recent work as well as a pencil and paper for the drawing portion.

President's Message

Dear members,

Let me start with the good news. The Stockton Art League has become the recipient of a generous donation of artwork by famed watercolorist Carl Miller. Included in the collection are woodcuts, watercolors, and pencil / graphite drawings. We are processing and sorting them and will present this collection in the near future.

On the other hand is the sad news that we are forced to cancel our plans for an 80th anniversary celebration. The time commitment and cost of holding such an event became overwhelming when compared to what we expected to raise with such an event. In its place, the board will be planning a holiday celebration that will include our December general meeting. We hope this will entice more members to attend the December meeting and recommit the membership to actively participate in SAL activities.

In the meantime, we are planning a sidewalk sale for October 15 and 16. The recent renovations we have been going through at the gallery has forced us to "clean house." I will have more specific information for you in next month's Collagraph.

Lastly, I wanted to remind everyone that we are only as strong as our membership. It has become urgent that we make a greater commitment to both SAL and the Elsie May Goodwin Gallery. We must have art hanging in order to have art to sell. The construction work is coming to an end, and we need something on the on the walls. Remember, Christmas is coming and the buying season is ahead of us.

Your President, Renee Koon

The next Board of Directors meeting will be on Sept. 7, at 10 am. SAL members are urged to attend and to voice your opinions.
