Reception 4-8pm

1850 Collective

Stockton was founded in 1849, but became an official city in 1850. Since then this city has gone through amazing things and tough times too. After many years of financial struggles, the city has finally been on the rise. With the movement of our city finally going in a positive direction, we want to keep the momentum going. Local artists, small business owners, creative, are what makes every great city thrive. We are a part of what will and is making Stockton an amazing place. Come see what we are doing.

NOTE: Reception time for this event will be 4 - 8pm

June 8: Demo artist, 3-5 pm

Raoul Mora

SAL offers opportunities for artists to reach their goal by implementing a drawing class under the superior direction of long-time art instructor Raoul Mora and supplying a beautiful gallery for the members to show their work. Raoul Mora who demonstrates new techniques, gives personal assistance, as needed and offers very useful critiques on the work that is being done as well as work that the artist has done at home and brought in for this purpose. There is no charge for this session although we do have a small optional raffle at this meeting.

Weather permitting, the drawing session on Thursday, June 8, will again meet at Caldwell Park on Pacific Ave. behind the S-Mart Grocery Store. If the weather is bad the class will meet at the Stockton Art League.
